

GE APPLIANCES SEEKING:

Talented, Self-Motivated, Interaction Design Interns with great attention to detail and a strong desire to learn and grow

About Us:

GE Appliance's Industrial Design Organization is a collaboration of Industrial and Interaction Designers, Consumer Insights Researchers, R&D Engineers, User Experience Research Specialists, and Model Makers. Interns are given the freedom and responsibility to contribute to the design team and experience every phase of the product development cycle through production launch.

A good part of our energetic creativity comes from being located in Louisville, KY. Known for horse racing and bourbon, Louisville is home to a vibrant music scene, unique shops and top-rated restaurants. From local makerspaces like our own GE Appliances FirstBuild, to monthly Creative Mornings and Gallery Hops, we're sure you don't know Louisville like you think you do.

About the Position:

GE Appliances is hiring multiple Interaction Design Interns at Appliances Headquarters in Louisville KY.

- 12 Month Duration
- Paid Internship (Competitive salary + the option to choose between full-furnished housing or monthly housing stipend)
